

The whole group outside the Sights and Sounds theater

Kathryn speaking to the woman's auxiliary of the Christian Chiropractors' Association in Lancaster, PA

Pennsylvania Regional LANCASTER, PA SEPTEMBER 4-6

On Sept 4-6, Kathryn and Ken went to Lancaster, PA to speak at the Christian Chiropractors' Association annual conference. Ken did three sessions on "Unlikely Heroes in the Book of Mark." Kathryn spoke for at the women's auxiliary luncheon on the "Armor of God" in Ephesians 6. We were well received and had a great time. After each session there was a time for questions and answers. We also had the opportunity to see the performance of "Noah" at the Sight and Sound Theater in Lancaster. It was quite a production, featuring many live animals. Special thanks go out to Marsha and Bob Hultgren for having us.

New Seminary Administrator

Many of you know Don Reiher. For years he has filmed and live streamed our annual conference. He wrote a great article in 2010 for our journal, "Zane Hodges and GES Did Not Change the Gospel." He has written several articles for our magazine, including a 2012 article, "Did Jesus Die to Pay the Penalty for the Sins of Believers Only?" You can read them at faithalone.org. Don is a graduate of Moody, Washington Bible College, Capital Bible Seminary, and Western Seminary (under Dr. Radmacher).

Don Reiher

Don retired last year from an administrative role in a charter school in Pennsylvania. He is happy to step in as our new seminary administrator.

Bible Studies in Indianapolis

Ken traveled to Indianapolis in September to conduct two Bible studies at the home of Flip and Cheri Burrer. We hope that this study will be the nucleus of a home church in Indianapolis, should the Lord tarry. Ken spoke on various issues, with a focus on the Biblical understanding of forgiveness.

Ken's home study in Indianapolis. We are hoping to start a home church there.

Greek Exegesis of James, Section 1 (Sam Marr, Dan Strathman, Mark Bruce, Dave Wyant, Bob Wilkin)

Seminary Classes in Full Swing

Here is a list of our classes and professors this semester: Soteriology (Dix Winston), NT Greek 101 (Tony Badger), OT Survey 1 (Geoff Stevens), Introduction to Ministry (David Jansen), Theology Proper, Pneumatology, Christology (Tony Badger), Greek Exegesis of 1-3 John (Dave Wyant), Greek Exegesis of James (Bob Wilkin), Angelology and Anthropology (Philippe Sterling), Eternal Rewards (Ken Yates), Logos Bible Software (Bill Fiess), and Hermeneutics (Steve Lewis).

We have students from all over the U.S. and from all over the world. All our faculty consider it a great privilege to be training eager students with sound teaching from God's Word. Thank you for making this possible.

Ken and Kathryn visiting Tony and Donna Badger and some other free grace folk

November/December Grace In Focus Cover

Old Testament Commentary Update

Ken Yates, Philippe Sterling, and I (Bob) are in full swing editing Volume 1 (Genesis to Deuteronomy) of our three-volume commentary. We meet on Friday mornings to go over our progress. We are on pace with having Volume 1 fully edited by Christmas. We will then have a few months for extensive proofing. Our aim is to have it to the typesetter by March 1 and then printed and in our office by mid-April, a month before the May 18-21, 2026 annual conference.

All but a few of the commentaries for volumes 2 and 3 are complete. The few that remain are expected to be finalized by the end of June.

We appreciate your prayers for this major project.

Zoom meeting of GES people helping John Niemela edit his translation of the Gospel of John

Notes and Letters

May Jesus' salvation only by grace through faith be better known and understood because of your ministry.
—Ernest, email

I am a Christian from the U.K. I am a free grace gospel believer. Brilliant conference video, thank you.
—YouTube Viewer commenting on "The Basics of Free Grace Theology."