

Homecoming and Revival in South Carolina

OCTOBER 26-29

Ken spoke at the annual homecoming of Little River Baptist Church in Jenkinsville, SC. He then spoke on the book of Galatians for three nights for the annual revival. The messages focused on how legalism is a serious problem that impacts both the message of eternal life by faith alone, as well as living by faith instead of by legalistic rules.

Bob's Ministries in November

This was a busy month. We worked hard and got the January-February 2026 magazine uploaded to the printer before Thanksgiving so that it can be mailed out earlier to get to people by December 25 to 30.

My class on the exegesis of James (Greek 205) finished this month. What a blessing the nine students in this class have been to me.

Philippe Sterling, Ken Yates, and I are working hard to have Volume one of our OT commentary (Genesis to Deuteronomy) ready to typeset by March 1st. I've edited Deuteronomy through chapter 22. Ken edited Numbers and Philippe has nearly finished editing Exodus. Ken earlier edited the commentaries on Genesis and Leviticus. In December and January all of us will edit all five books.

I spoke at Berean Memorial Church in Irving, TX on Nov 9. I completed my exposition of Genesis, which began several years ago. It is always a joy to be with these believers who truly are Bereans (Acts 17:11).

Our CPA firm completed our 990 financial filing form. The board completed final revisions just before Thanksgiving. If you'd like a copy, let us know. We'd be happy to email or mail you one.

Regional Conference in the Dominican Republic

OCTOBER 31 -
NOVEMBER 2

Going home after the conference. Marino, Jr., Ken Yates, Marino, Sr.

The conference was held at the Grace Church of the Faithful Remnant in Santiago. Ken Yates spoke along with Marino Martinez, the son of the church's pastor. Ken White, a missionary in the D.R., is an elder at the church and helped with translation. The conference was on "Critical Aspects Concerning Eternal Security." There were seven sessions, with an average attendance of around 100. Marino and GES are making a concentrated effort to get the message of grace to Spanish speaking people around the world. Thanks to all who took part, especially to Marino Martinez, Sr., for the hospitality extended.

Women's Retreat in Boise, Idaho

OCTOBER 31 -
NOVEMBER 2

I (Kathryn) had the privilege of speaking at a women's retreat for Lake Hazel Bible Church in Boise, Idaho. The theme was "Testimonies—and Some of the Pitfalls." We explored how personal stories can be powerful when they point clearly to Christ and the promise of everlasting life. Lake Hazel Bible is also home to the Ritchie family, who have partnered with us in short-term missions. Micaela Manley, who works part-time with GES, also joined us for the retreat.

Group shot of Coppell Retreat

Women's Retreat in Texas

NOVEMBER 7 - 9

I (Kathryn) joined Nicole Rossen, women's ministry leader at Coppell Bible Fellowship, as speakers for their women's retreat. I highlighted Free Grace truths in discipleship, looking closely at often-misunderstood passages like the Parable of the Four Soils, Ephesians 2:10, and James 2. There were women attending who were new to the grace message. One woman shared that she had been struggling with doubts about her salvation. She found the church on the GES website and first visited just three weeks before this retreat! She's now looking forward to our 2026 National Conference.
